Brent Putz

Director, NorthRock Sports and Advisor, Personal Office™

With over 12 years of comprehensive advisory experience, Brent counsels and advises clients on nearly every aspect of their personal lifestyles and professional careers. Whether he's offering guidance on financial planning to a professional athlete or coaching an executive through a material career change, Brent has developed a reputation for positively impacting the lives of his clients and their family members.

Throughout his career, Brent has focused on building genuine relationships that benefit his clients and community for a lifetime. His priority on relationship-building coupled with his financial management skills have earned him credibility within the sports and entertainment arena. Brent is confident in the Personal Office™ experience as a unique model for success for professional athletes, executives, business owners or anyone else looking for comprehensive planning.

Brent is a graduate of Saint John's University, where he earned a degree in Business and Financial Management. He and his wife, Tara, along with their daughters, Brea and Joslyn, live in Plymouth, Minnesota. They enjoy being active in their community and spending as much time as possible with friends and family.
